

The Hi-Definition signal from the Stryker 1088 HD Camera provides two thirds more information along with Progressive Scan technology resulting in true-to-life color reproduction, improved motion control, and the unbelievable visual precision to enable the most meticulous of surgical movements. Let us show you why the Stryker 1088 HD is A Revolution in Resolution.

Features

- Hi Definition (HD) Video – 1280 x 1024 native resolution
- Incredibly small and ergonomic camera head – for superior comfort and control
- Standard aspect ratio – allows you to maximize existing video equipment
- Progressive scan technology – optimum image quality with superb resolution
- Digital Outputs – DVI necessary to take advantage of digital HD fidelity
- Four-button camera head design – control of 6 functions from the camera head
- Multi-Specialty Settings – user-selectable specialty settings which customize video output for the unique needs of your cases

