

The Hospira Sapphire Plus is a small compact infusion pump. It's a robust design and MedNet Software makes the Sapphire Plus a safe and reliable choice for your facility. The Sapphire Plus has a full-color touch screen, making it easier to program. The infusion pump runs on a rechargeable battery that can last up to 24 hours without recharging. The Sapphire helps you deliver exceptional care.

Features

- Reduce complexity at bedside
- Easily move from one care area to another with its small footprint
- Add devices without adding cords; the multi-pump cradle and embedded power-mounting option make it possible
- Accelerate set up for rapid response
- Snap-on, snap-off pump from cradle attached to infusion pole
- Make priming easy with straight line tubing and fast set loading
- Experience intuitive and simple programming
- Help prevent programming errors; intuitive user interface displays only relevant keystroke options
- Easily read critical information on large font summary screen

